On behalf of The Quilters' Guild of NSW Inc., I am proud to present the 2010 Calendar, the second in a series. The first calendar was produced for 2008, the next planned for 2012 to celebrate the Guild's 100th year anniversary. Many thanks to those members who submitted quilts for this calendar and congratulations to the artists whose quilts were selected by the invited judges, Dianne Finnegan and Judy Hooworth.

The winning quilt is featured on the cover with a further 12 quilts representing the months. The techniques featured in the entries were many and varied and clearly identify the broad quilting interests of our members. The judge's comments are included and truly express the essence of Australian quilting today as seen in these quilts.
